

WOMEN RACE AND SEX OPPRESSION

a film and discussion series

presented by

THE SIMONE DE BEAUVOIR INSTITUTE

and the

CONCORDIA WOMEN'S CENTRE

Thursday, February 15, 12:00-13:00, Status of Women Lounge, 2120 Bishop

BLACK WOMEN OF BRAZIL (MULHERE NEGRAS). Silvana Afram.

Black women speak out about their oppression as women and Black women.

Thursday, February 22, 17:30, Room H-937

BLACK MOTHER, BLACK DAUGHTER. An Atlantic Centre Production

An exploration of the lives of Black women who, through home, church and community have patiently fostered and nurtured the survival of Black culture in Nova Scotia.

and

OLDER, STRONGER, WISER. Studio D, NFB

The first in the Women at the Well series which documents the life experiences of Black Canadian women, this film recovers history through interviews with community elders.

Thursday, March 1, 12:00-13:00, Status of Women Lounge, 2120 Bishop

WOMEN ARISE. V.N.S.

Description of the lives of women domestic workers in South Africa.

Thursday, March 8, 12:00-13:00, Room. H-110

BORN IN FLAMES

Lizzie Borden

A futuristic look at 10 years after a socialistic revolution in the U.S. in which women organize to resist oppression.

Panel and special workshops to follow.

for more information call:

Jocelyne Cottier - 848-7431

Sharene Razack - 848-2371